

The international conference "AIB US-Northeast Chapter Special Meeting on China" was held last week, 21-24 May 2014 in Beijing and Tianjin in Beijing Technology and Business University and Tianjin Foreign Studies University, respectively. PhD candidate Katuscia Vaccarini, University of Macerata, Italy and Prof. Louise Curran, Toulouse Business School, France took part in the conference and presented their research within the Framework of Pöresen about the following topics: "Psychic Distance and its Role as a Determinant of FDI in the Chinese Marketplace" (Katuscia Vaccarini) "How Emerging Country MNEs (EMNEs) Address the Liability of Foreignness: The Solar Panel Case" (Louise Curran). In this occasion the Best Student Paper Award was assigned to "Psychic Distance and its Role as a Determinant of FDI in the Chinese Marketplace" by Katuscia Vaccarini. Congratulations to Katuscia!

More info about the conference at <http://www.aibac.net> and <http://aib.usa.edu/events/chaptermeet.asp>. The Programme is available 2014.05.21-25 Program final Katuscia.