

Osservatorio sulle economie emergenti- Torino (OEET) Turin Centre on Emerging Economies

Workshop

“Asian emerging economies in the post crisis era:
growth trajectories, challenges and perspectives”

Turin, March 12-13, 2015

University of Turin – Campus Luigi Einaudi, Lungo Dora Siena 100 A, Sala Lauree Rossa

March 12, 2015

h. 14,00 Opening Ceremony

h. 14,15 Key-note lecture, Sanjay Reddy (The New School for Social Research), Emerging Countries and the World System.

h.15,00 – 17,30 Session 1: Industrial Dynamics, corporate strategies and multinational networks

Chair: Jean François Huchet (INALCO-Langues'O, Sorbonne)

Giorgio Prodi and Federico Frattini (Università di Ferrara), The rise of the automobile industry in China. Technological capabilities, market asymmetries and prospects in the global economy.

Alessia Amighini (Università del Piemonte Orientale) and Andrea Goldstein (OECD), Home-country perspectives on Emerging Multinationals: the case of Chinese and Indian carmakers.

Giovanni Balcet (Università di Torino), Xavier Richet (Université de Paris 3) and Wang Hua (Kedge Business School, Shanghai), Chinese multinationals: catching up and asset-seeking strategies. The acquisition of Volvo by Geely.

Francesca Spigarelli (Università di Macerata) and Ping Lv (University of Chinese Academy of Sciences, Beijing), Chinese direct investments and the European renewable energy industry: new trends and expected impact.

Jean-Louis Mucchielli (Université de Paris 1 Sorbonne) and Yu Pei (Wuhan University), Offshore R&D and “cluster-seeking” strategies: US versus EU MNCs location in Chinese cities

General discussion.

h. 17,30-17,45 Coffee break

h. 17,45 Tavola rotonda (round table), Le imprese italiane e le economie emergenti in Asia: strategie e opportunità.

Chair: Giovanni Balcet (Università di Torino)

Gianfranco Carbonato (Confindustria Piemonte), Federico Galliano (General Motors Powertrain Europe), Mario Deaglio (Editorialista e Università di Torino), Alessandro Perissinotto (Scrittore e Università di Torino)

Con il contributo di

Osservatorio sulle economie emergenti- Torino (OEET) Turin Centre on Emerging Economies

Workshop

“Asian emerging economies in the post crisis era:
growth trajectories, challenges and perspectives”

Turin, March 12-13, 2015

University of Turin – Campus Luigi Einaudi,
Lungo Dora Siena 100 A, Sala Lauree Rossa

March 13, 2015

Session 2: Growth patterns and development issues.

h. 8,15 – 10,15 session 2A:

Chair: Giovanni Graziani (Università di Parma)

Marcello Signorelli (Università di Perugia), Age Dependency and Labour Productivity in Developing and Developed Economies.

Sean Dougherty (OECD), Could an upstart competitor overtake the Chinese? A comparison of Chinese and Mexican firms.

Giorgio Brosio (Università di Torino), Financing subnational investment for urban green growth in China.

Vittorio Valli, Donatella Saccone (Università di Torino), Structural change, globalization and economic growth in China and India

General discussion.

h. 10,15 - 10,30 Coffee break

h. 10,30 – 11,10 Key-note speech, Senator Paolo Guerrieri (Università di Roma), A new cycle for emerging economies.

h. 11,10 – 13,40 Session 2B:

Chair: Vittorio Valli (Università di Torino)

Jean François Huchet (INALCO-Langues'O, Sorbonne), Reforms and Limits in the Evolution of the Chinese Growth Model since the 18th Party Congress.

Giovanni Andornino (Università di Torino, T.wai), The political economy of Sino-Italian relations in the Greater Mediterranean region.

Matteo Migheli (Università di Torino), People 's Support to the Doi Moi in Vietnam.

Augusto Ninni (Università di Parma), Green Industrial policy in not so large emerging countries. The case of Vietnam.

Giuseppe Gabusi (Università di Torino and T.wai), State, Market and Social order: Myanmar's political economic challenges.

Discussant: Francesco Abbate and general discussion.

Con il contributo di

